

DIRECTIONS TO THE H.B. WALLACE RESERVE

From U.S. Hwy 24 (approaching from Colorado Springs), take the Green Mountain Falls exit (a left exit).

Follow Green Mountain Falls Road until it turns into Ute Pass Avenue. Go through Green Mountain Falls and use the hiker parking lot on the east side of the intersection at Ute Pass Avenue and Mountain Road. Walk up Mountain Road for about 0.5 miles to the H.B. Wallace Reserve on the right, marked by a sign.

LEAVE NO TRACE

In 2025, this trail system was designated as a Leave No Trace Gold Standard site in partnership with the Town of Green Mountain Falls, Ute Pass Elementary School, Friends of Ute Pass Trails, and the Historic Green Mountain Falls Foundation. This nationally acclaimed environmental stewardship program encourages the conservation of nature and the protection of wildlife and open spaces. Please do your part and follow the Hiker Five guidelines and posted regulations in our parks, trails, and open spaces to minimize your impact. Watch for additional signage along the way and enjoy your time in Green Mountain Falls.

The H.B. Wallace Reserve is 95 acres of undeveloped forest with over 2.5 miles of trails in Green Mountain Falls and Chipita Park. The system of trails on the reserve was developed by Henry Browne Wallace, son of former vice president Henry Agard Wallace. H.B., as he was known, generously shared these trails with the residents in Green Mountain Falls and Chipita Park. He left a proud family legacy through his efforts to preserve the natural beauty of the H.B. Wallace Reserve.

In 2008, the Historic Green Mountain Falls Foundation purchased these 95 acres from the H.B. Wallace Estate. In 2009, the Kirkpatrick Trail was built to effectively connect the private trails on the Reserve to the over 5 miles of public trails in the Ute Pass area. Dedicated in 2010, the Kirkpatrick Trail is named to honor the Kirkpatrick family, long-time summer residents of Green Mountain Falls. This trail system provides an important firebreak and was the first large parcel fire mitigation project in Green Mountain Falls.
